

Biography

Yazaid Al-Salloom

Chief Executive Officer

Prior to joining Merrill Lynch Saudi Arabia, Yazaid was most recently the CEO of Standard Chartered Bank Saudi Arabia looking after the institution's Saudi operations.

Yazaid joined Standard Chartered in 2018 where he was eventually appointed as its head of Bank & Broker Dealer Sales for the Middle East, North Africa, Pakistan and Turkey within its Global Financial Markets division.

Before joining Standard Chartered, Yazaid spent over 7 years at HSBC's Global Banking and Markets division between its debt capital markets origination and bond sales teams. Prior to HSBC, Yazaid spent 3 years at Deutsche Bank (Deutsche Securities Saudi Arabia) in its MENA Investment Banking and Corporate Coverage Divisions.

Yazaid obtained a Leadership Certification from IMD Business School in Lausanne, Switzerland in 2018, a Masters in Business Administration from the University of San Diego in 2007 and bachelors of Arts and Sciences, with a Finance Emphasis and a Media Communications Minor, from the University of San Diego in 2005 after completing a yearlong Internship at Merrill Lynch's Wealth Management Division in the United States in 2004.